

Shipping Intelligence.

ARRIVALS.

JANUARY 30.—From Hobart Town, having left the 23rd January, the barque Midlothian, 414 tons, Captain Morrison, with merchandise. Passengers—Mr. Mrs. and Miss Foster, Mrs. and Miss Christie, Miss Rossignolie, Messrs. Drummond, Healy, Tait, Lyons, and Westgarth.

31.—From Lombok, having left the 26th November, the ship John Berry, 524 tons, Captain Robson, with rice and horses. Passengers—Messrs. Shortess, Gordon, and Jones.

31.—From Port Phillip, having left the 23rd January, the brig Jewess, 204 tons, Captain Crew, in ballast. Passengers—Messrs. Edwards, Smith, Manning, Wilson, and Holden, and eight in the steerage.

31.—From Bristol via the Cape of Good Hope, having left the former port the 31st August, the latter the 5th December, the ship Ruby, 413 tons, Captain Myhill, with general cargo. Passengers—Mrs. and Miss Allan and child, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Mr. H. Lee, Mr. J. Lee, Miss Lee, Mr. John Lee, Messrs. Evans, Johnson, and Randall; steerage, Mr. Mrs. and Miss Kidd, Miss Pike, Messrs. Hogaith, Allison, and S. Kidd.

31.—From Newcastle, the brig Mertha, 121 tons, Captain Powell, with coals.

31.—From London, via the Cape of Good Hope, having left the former the 29th August, the latter 4th December, the barque William Lushington, 409 tons, Captain Atkins, with general cargo. Passengers—Dr. and Mrs. Roe, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bullen, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt; steerage, Mr. and Mrs. Hart and six daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Crisp and two children, Mr. Gooch, Mrs. Rachel Moss and two children, Mr. Moss and two children.

31.—From London, having left Plymouth 6th October, the barque Conrad, 406 tons, Captain Campbell, with 65 bounty emigrants. Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. Bellingham and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Mowitt and two children, Miss Turner, Mr. and Miss Robinson, Mr. Deacon and two children, Mr. Phillips, Mrs. Kymell, and Dr. Phillips.

31.—From Port Phillip, having left 22nd January, the cutter Sisters, Captain Mulhall, in ballast. Passengers—Dr. McIntosh, Messrs. Mitchell, Holland, Dickenson, Innes, and Offard.

FEBRUARY 1.—From London, having left the Downs 12th October, the barque Psithemus, 384 tons, Captain Wilner, with merchandise. Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Miss Darby, Mr. Taylor, Miss Lewis, Miss Dawson, Miss Fennie, Messrs. Dawson, Porter, Kilson, Cruikshank, and Curtis; steerage, Miss E. Dolve, Miss Reid, Miss Fleming, Miss Humby, Miss Roxby, Messrs. Crowther, Pitts, Turk, Brewin, and Jackson.

1.—From Launceston, having left 24th ultimo, the brig William, 149 tons, Captain Grant, with oats, bark, &c. Passengers—Captain Evans, Mrs. Evans and child, Miss Wareham, Messrs. Cox and Stephenson; steerage, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and child, Miss Grayling, Messrs. Alcock and Thompson.

1.—From Port Phillip, having left the 21st ultimo, the brig Glenalvon, 212 tons, Captain Young, with merchandise. Passenger—Mr. Parson.

1.—From Liverpool, having left the 27th August, the barque Maldon, 238 tons, Captain Macfarlane, with merchandise. Passengers—Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and six children, and Mr. Armstrong.

Cummins and six children, and Mr. Armstrong.

1.—From New York, having left the 13th October, the ship Huntress, 550 tons, Captain Lovatt, with general cargo. Passengers—Rev. Mr. Adam and family.

* * * The ship signalled to the southward last night had not rounded Bradley's Head at twelve o'clock.